

Nation

WASHINGTON—The Central Intelligence Agency admits it financed a project that employed a psychic who could "see" what was going on anywhere in the world if shown a picture of the place. CIA Director Stansfield Turner wouldn't reveal how accurate the psychic was, but said the project was dropped in 1975. "He died," Turner said, "and we haven't heard from him since."